

If we could take a look inside your character's head, what would we see?

You have been given two templates or outlines of a head. You may use this template or draw your own to complete this assignment. Choose one book from the provided list, and one of your own choice to complete the two Mind Maps,

Choose one character from each novel. Think about all of the character's personality traits and qualities (ex: shy, considerate, outgoing), and how this person grows and changes throughout the book. Now, create a visual representation of your character that shows what is happening inside your character's head. Create one Mind Map using a book from the provided list and one using a book of your choice.

You may use words, pictures, colors, and symbols to create your Mind Map. For example, if your character is very greedy, you may want to represent their hair with money. If baseball is very important to them, you may make their eyes baseballs. Their mouth could be made up with words or quotations. You may use the Internet, magazines, or hand-drawn images. BE CREATIVE!
